

Importance of DPSP

There is a difference in opinion regarding the importance of DPSP.

- Some Critics says that DPSP are post-dated cheques which are never cashable
- Some Critics holds the view that DPSP are merely widow dressings.

Constitution under Article 37 holds that DPSP are essential in governance of a state. Even, Dr. B.R Ambedkar termed DPSP are best election manifesto of a political party.

No doubt, DPSP are not enforceable in Court of law, but it is definitely enforceable in Court of people.

The Court while implementing DPSP may not be answerable in Court of law, but are definitely answerable in Court of people.

It is the people who decides success & failure of a political party in the election. If more DPSP are implemented, we can say that, a Govt has taken more steps towards a welfare state.

DPSP acts like a light house, which shows the direction for the ship of state, reaching the destination of welfare state.
