

Ques Congress was an all India organization. Comment.

Ans → The Indian National Congress was established in 1885 by A.O. Hume. This was the organization in which the people involved from whole the country. It was established by the person who was a British member of the Imperial civil service. The sessions of Indian national congress was held in different seasons <sup>of the</sup> country, and presided by the people who belong from different religion and different season of the country. For Ex The first session of INC was held in Bombay in 1885. Presided by W.C. Banerjee who was ~~indian~~.

The second session was held in 1886 in Calcutta. Presided by Dadabhai Naoroji who was Parsi.

The third session was held in Madras in 1887. Presided by Badruddin Tyabji who was Muslim.

The fourth session was held in Allahabad. Presided by G.D. Birla who was ~~indian~~ Christian.

and the other sessions were held in different part of the country. So in INC all the people of the country involved so we can say Congress was an all India organization.

These words written not 150 words can be presented in 100 words