

Ques- The Culture and traditions of IVC has been preserved without a breakdown to the present day? comment.

Ans- The IVC culture has been preserved till now because of mentality, beliefs, Sovereignty, Trade, agriculture and domestication.

mentality :

At present day and at the time of IVC here we find common in worshipping. Both IVC and our present day civilization worships god to get rid of their fear and also to fulfillment of their wishes and desires.

◦ Beliefs :

- We use Amulets as our good luck charm and ^{it} also protects us from an evil and danger. Where as,
- Amulets was also used by the IVC may be they used it to protect themselves from an evil or danger.

◦ Sovereignty

- In IVC we found many cities which are fortified. We found a city Dholavira which have fort within the fort it means, we can say that there was also a border between two cities.
- We also found citadels in Harappa and Mohenjodaro where ruling class lived and we also found that Ministry was also there.
- That means each state was sovereign in itself and may be also have some rules and regulations. Where as,
- And In present day India is also an independent country and has its own sovereignty and integrity.

o Agriculture

- We use multicropping strategy in present day. And,

- At the time of IVC, Cambridge study said that they were the first who used multicropping strategy.

o Trade :

- Imports and Exports is part of our present world. And,

- In IVC they were also doing Exports (agricultural production, pottery etc.) and Imports (like stone and metals)

o Technology :

- We use juellery of gold, silver and stone at present. And,

- At that time they were also using jewellery of gold, silver and stone.

• Domestication of animals :

- IVC people domesticate the animals.
where as,

- In rural India we can find many houses
where animals are domesticated.

• We found Great Bath in Etahel which was used for rituals and for some special purpose and in at present our holy rivers like Ganga is also used for rituals and also to get rid of sin.

from the above points I ^{We} can say that the way of life and to live life. is more or less preserved. without a breakdown to the present day.

- for the first answer in history - very good
- word limit is crossed
- plz discuss the answer with me.
